DONOR INFORMATION

The papers were placed on contract with the University of Missouri by Ida W. Cannon on 28 January 1966 (Accession No. 3650). An addition was made on 4 January 1971 by Ida W. Cannon.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH

Clarence Cannon was born in Elsberry, Missouri, on April 11, 1879. He attended LaGrange College and received B.A. and M.A. degrees from William Jewell College in 1903 and 1904. He served as Professor of History at Stephens College in Columbia, Missouri, from 1904 to 1908. After receiving his LLB degree from the University of Missouri, Cannon established his law practice in Troy, Missouri, in 1908. He later joined Congressman Champ Clark's staff in Washington, D.C. Cannon served as a parliamentarian in the U.S. House of Representatives under both Democratic and Republican administrations before being elected to Congress in 1922. He served as a congressman from the Ninth District of Missouri from 1923 until his death in 1964. During his tenure, Cannon became Chairman of the House Committee on Appropriations, serving in the capacity when his party was in power until his death.

A recognized expert on parliamentary procedure, Cannon served as parliamentarian for all the Democratic National Conventions from 1920 to 1960, and authored and edited many books on parliamentary procedure and practice. Among his books parliamentarianship are A Synopsis of the Procedure of the House (1919); National Convention Parliamentary Manual (1928); Cannon's Precedents (1936, 1949); and Manual and Digest of the House of Representatives (1918, 1919).

Cannon married Ida Dawson Wigginton on August 30, 1906, and the couple had two daughters, Ida Elizabeth and Ruby Melinda. When not in Washington, Cannon spent a good deal of his time on his farm in Elsberry, Missouri. He died in 1964.
