Biographical Note:

James “Jim” G. Haman was born September 8, 1928, in Cape Girardeau, MO to Chester A. and Lucile E. Ables Haman. He and Eleanor Rose Grossheider were married May 15, 1954, at Zion Lutheran Church in Gordonville. Jim and Eleanor were married for 69 years before her death in 2024. Jim passed away in 2026.

Jim was the first cameraman and head of photography at the new KFVS television station in Cape Girardeau in 1954. Jim also was instrumental in founding the Southeast Missouri Arts Council in 1961. In December 1961, Jim and Eleanor Haman purchased Kassel’s Studio at 124 S. Main Street and discovered the vast collection of glass plates, negatives and photographs in the basement.

Founded in the late 1890s by French immigrant G.A. Kassel, Kassel Studio operated in Cape Girardeau, Missouri for nearly 100 years. Kassel Studio became known for documenting Southeast Missouri history. Notable work includes capturing major regional events such as the 1922 Mississippi River flood and the 1911 Common Pleas Courthouse statue dedication.

In 1973, the Haman’s relocated Kassel’s Studio to 1304 Broadway and renamed it Haman’s Kastle Studio. Jim and Eleanor continued to expand and preserve the large historic photograph collection, researching and documenting each image.

After retirement, Jim focused on the historical value of the collection and made the images available to the newspaper and writers in the region. The Hamans donated the glass plates and negatives from Kassel Studio to the Southeast Missouri State University Special Collections and Archives in 2008. The James and Eleanor Haman Photograph Collection encompasses their assembled print collection and documentation.

Arrangement:

The collection has been arranged into the following series:

Photographs
Oversized items
Other Materials

Scope and Content Note:

Photographs

This assembled collection of photographs dates primarily from the 1880s to the 1950s and depicts the development of Cape Girardeau as well as other Southeast Missouri communities including Advance, Altenburg, Chaffee, Fornfelt, Gordonville, Illmo, Jackson, New Madrid, Oak

Ridge, Old Appleton, Pocahontas, Poplar Bluff, and Portageville. The subject matter is widely varied: Mississippi riverfront, flooding, commercial buildings, railroad depots, residential buildings, hotels, bridges, churches, and a few portraits. Several of the images are accompanied by related newspaper clippings. The container list includes the known details of each image, which were labeled, numbered and arranged by Jim and Eleanor Haman. The original order has been preserved.

Oversized items

This series includes photographic enlargements, aerial images of Cape Girardeau, and a variety of maps of Southeast Missouri, including a reproduction of the 1854 plat map for Cape Girardeau.

Other Materials

This series contains ephemera, including 10 postcards of historic scenes in Cape Girardeau. Subjects include the Common Pleas Courthouse, Southeast Missouri State University, and Fairground Park. Of particular interest is an original 1896 Cape Girardeau business directory.
