Biographical Note:

Mary Sue Chiles was born in September 1895. Her parents were Lutie Thornton and Joel Franklin Chiles. She grew up in Fort Osage, Jackson County, Missouri. She was a teacher.

Her family was very involved in the Six Mile Baptist Church in Jackson County, Missouri, one of the oldest churches of the area. The second church building was built in 1859 on the land of Colonel James Chiles, who was her father’s uncle. Another ancestor, G.L. Black was the pastor of the church directly after the Civil War.

She died on December 25, 1981.
