Historical Note:

Fort D’Orleans was located on the banks of the Missouri River in what is now Carroll County, Missouri. It was established around 1723-1724 by Étienne de Veniard, Sieur de Bourgmont. It was the first military post established on the Missouri River. The Fort was said to either have been destroyed by Native Americans or simply abandoned and decayed. The exact site of the Fort D’Orleans is unknown.
