Historical Note:

The Crooked Creek Cumberland Presbyterian Church was established in 1834 in Keysville and later moved to Steelville. The church was organized by John Dunlap, Reuben Vaughn, Mr. Keys, and several others.

Arrangement:

The collection has been maintained in its original order.

Scope and Content Note:

This collection contains the names of pastors who served the congregation, including T.S. Love; the election of delegates to attend meetings of the St. Louis Presbytery; the visitation of a committee to various members to discuss their Christian conduct and church membership; and the receiving and baptism of new members, as well as requests for letters of dismissal and recommendation for departing members. These minutes of church business meetings provide a detailed account of the church’s membership but are incomplete. There are several large gaps from 1880-1884, 1895-1902, and 1913-1925, as well as a few smaller ones.
