Biographical Note:

Sarah Elizabeth Messer was born on June 7, 1972, in Englewood, Colorado, to Cynthia and Nathanial Messer IV. She spent her early years in the Littleton and Fort Collins areas before the Messer family moved to Columbia, Missouri, in 1988. She attended Rock Bridge High School and graduated in 1990.

Messer received a Bachelor of Journalism degree from the University of Missouri in 1995. While attending the university, she worked as a staff reporter and sports photographer at the Columbia Missourian. After graduation, Messer worked as a photographer, first in San Antonio, Texas, before returning to Columbia. She was known for her photographs of children, families, and Mizzou athletic events. She was also involved in the PEO Sisterhood and volunteered with the Journalism School’s Pictures of the Year International.

Arrangement:

The collection has been arranged into the following five series:

University of Missouri Athletics
Freelance Work
Personal
Born Digital Files
Oversize

Scope and Content Note:

University of Missouri Athletics

This series contains negatives, contact sheets, prints, and slides pertaining to athletic events at the University of Missouri, primarily for football and men’s basketball games and largely dating from 1998-2002. Some were taken during Becking’s time as a student at Mizzou. Other sports featured include baseball, volleyball, golf, and women’s soccer. The series has been arranged alphabetically.

Freelance Work

This series consists of materials pertaining to Becking’s freelance career, and includes negatives, contact sheets, prints, and slides. The series has been arranged alphabetically.
Personal

This series contains Becking’s personal photographs and negatives, along with student work done while at the University of Missouri, including while working at the Missourian. Some family material is included. Some of the material may be freelance work. If the nature of the work was unclear, it was incorporated into the personal series. The series has been arranged alphabetically.

Born Digital Files

This series contains born digital files that were transferred from computer discs. There is some overlap between the digital files and the physical materials, and the digital files have been arranged similarly to the physical materials by type of material. Some digital files have negatives and contact sheets that can be found in the physical materials. There is also some overlap among the digital files between the folders pertaining to Mizzou Illustrated and other University of Missouri sporting events. The series has been arranged alphabetically.

Oversize

The Oversize series contains two photographs of ruins in Athens, Greece; a photograph of Mizzou football player Marcus James; and an advertisement for Mpix, the official site for University of Missouri sports photography.
