Scrapbook

Scope and Content Note:

Scrapbook

The series contains a disbound scrapbook kept by Karleen Forbis, a student at Northwest Missouri State Teachers College, now named Truman State University. The scrapbook includes school event programs, photographs, correspondence, commencement programs, a student directory, and miscellaneous ephemeral items collected by Forbis. The bulk of the photographs contain no label and are of Forbis, athletic teams, fellow students and friends, and buildings on campus. There are also graduation group and individual photographs within the collection. Also included in the scrapbook is a sporting event program for the 1940 football homecoming game, various papers from the Women’s Athletic Association, and programs for plays put on by athletes. Lastly, the correspondence found at the end of the scrapbook is between Forbis and various institutions to which she was seeking employment.
