This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri, Research Center-Columbia. If you would like more information, please contact us at research@shsmo.org.

Dates: 1901-2020
Creator: Linguistic Society of America
Collection Size: 54.6 cubic feet, 10 audio cassettes, 1 video cassette

Introduction
Addition of records of an organization dedicated to research and publication in the analysis of language. Includes publications, programs from annual meetings and Linguistic Institutes, publicity clippings, and materials concerning affiliated organizations, various committees, and Ebonics. Also includes correspondence of George M. Bolling and Bernard Bloch, who were both editors of Language and presidents of LSA.

Donor Information
The records were donated to the University of Missouri by the Linguistic Society of America through Margaret Reynolds on 11 February 2003. Additional material was donated by Margaret Reynolds, Alyson Reed, the Linguistic Society of America, Louanna Furbee, Rita Lewis, Brian D. Joseph, Kerrie Ann Merz, and Mark Aranoff from 2003 to 2022.

Restriction
The Linguistic Society of America retains copyrights it owns in its publications.

NOTE: See also Linguistic Society of America Records (C3974).
