This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri, Research Center-Columbia. If you would like more information, please contact us at research@shsmo.org.

Dates: 1997-2010
Creator: Fitzpatrick, Mary Catherine Underhill
Collection Size: 0.4 cubic feet

Introduction
Papers of a journalist who reported eyewitness dispatches of the terrorist attacks in New York City on September 11, 2001, for the Milwaukee Journal Sentinel. Includes her memoir, “9/11 Remembered: A Personal Account;” hand-written reporter’s notes; copies of her published stories; photographs; correspondence; awards she received from the Milwaukee Press Club for the coverage; and other items.

Donor Information
The papers were donated to the State Historical Society of Missouri by Mary Catherine Underhill Fitzpatrick on 18 August 2011.

Restriction
The Donor retains copyrights held in the Papers, with the understanding that researchers granted access by the Society are free to use and quote from any of the Papers.

Box List

Box 1
Travel documents for Fashion Week coverage, 2001—itineraries, receipts
Reporter’s notes
In The Streets timeline story, 11 September 2001
Exhausted Police Officers story, 12 September 2001
Times Square story, 13 September 2001
Union Square Park Vigil story, 14 September 2001
Color drawing by Lonnie Turner, 13 September 2001
Handbills, 2001 (2)
Correspondence, 2001, 2006—cards, notes, e-mails
Correspondence, program, 2001, 2002—journalism award nominations
Article—“Sounds and Fury,” 2010; Milwaukee Journal Sentinel Ink newsletters, 2001, 2002 (2)
Media releases, e-mail re. Running Toward Danger: Stories Behind the Breaking News of 9/11
Clippings/full page tear sheets—Milwaukee Journal Sentinel, 1997-2002
Publications—Once a Year, Milwaukee Press Club, 2002; Editor & Publisher, 2 September 2002
Memoir—9/11 Remembered: A Personal Account
Plaques—Milwaukee Press Club awards, 2001 (2)