This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri, Research Center- Columbia. If you would like more information, please contact us at research@shsmo.org.

Dates: 1989-2006
Creator: Naylor, Jackson Benton
Collection Size: 3.1 cubic feet, 1 DVD, 1 video cassette

Introduction
The papers of a farmer and hobbyist photographer from Chariton County, Missouri, largely contain photographs, including photographs taken during his involvement with the Agricultural Leadership of Tomorrow program and for the funeral of a Civil War veteran.

Donor Information
The papers were donated to the State Historical Society of Missouri by Jackson Benton Naylor on 13 April 2021. Additions were made by Melissa Applegate on 16 June 2021 and 1 July 2021.

Restriction
The donor has retained copyright.

Box List

Box 1
Sanborn Field Centennial Celebration, 1989
Agricultural Leadership of Tomorrow (ALOT)
  - Directory, brochures, newsletters, and program information, 2003-2006
  - Photographs, Speakers and Members, 2003 (2 binders)

Box 2
ALOT Photographs (2 binders)
  - Class X meetings, 2003
  - South Korea and Japan trip, 2004

Box 3 (partially full)
ALOT Photographs (1 binder)
  - Hawaii trip, 2004
  - Class meetings/MDC Presley Center, 2003-2006
Photographs
  - Mid-Missouri buildings and sites, c. 1994-1995
  - University of Missouri buildings, 1990s
Eastern Ozarks Fall Photography Workshop material, 1995 (taught by Oliver Schuchard)

Boxes 4-5 (oversize)
Photographs, Funeral of Corporal John Peyton Byrne, Union Soldier, 21st Missouri
AUDIOVISUAL MATERIAL (Location: Unprocessed A/V)

DVD 1  “The Last Farewell: The Story of John Peyton Byrne,” 2005

v.c. 1  “Floodwatch ’93,” KRCG-TV, 1993