This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri, Research Center-Columbia. If you would like more information, please contact us at research@shs.mo.org.

Dates: 1880s-2008
Creator: Clinton (Mo.) daily democrat
Collection Size: 2.5 cubic feet

Introduction
The records of the Clinton Daily Democrat contain photographs, correspondence, printed material, and miscellaneous. The newspaper began operating in Henry County, Missouri, in 1868.

Donor Information
The records were donated to the State Historical Society of Missouri by Tyler Simons on 11 February 2002.

Restriction
The donor retains copyright.

Box List

Box 1
Photographs
Mastodon Dig, 1979
Betty Hearn
Clinton Daily Democrat Employees
Elm Creek
Negatives
Buildings, Osceola, MO
Buildings (2 folders)
Portraits (2 folders)
Sports/Hunting
1880s-2000s (15 folders)
Old Glory Days, Clinton, MO, 2001
Clinton High School Homecoming, 2001 (4 folders)
Rawhide Rodeo Queens
VFA Fire Department Matching Grants Program, 2008

Box 2
Photographs
A-Z (28 folders)
2008, April-December (9 folders)
Clinton High School sports, 2001 (2 folders)
Basketball
Box 3 (partially full)
Photographs
   Baby contests/Car shows (4 folders)
   Parade, Deepwater, MO, 2001 (2 folders)
   Calhoun, MO
   Chilhowee, MO, 2001
   Wee Queens
Correspondence, 1969-1985 (2 folders)
Clippings
Printed material
Miscellaneous material
Hand-drawn illustrations of a town gathering and a train depot, n.d.