Introduction
The collection contains a single folder of transcriptions for records pertaining to the Lone Star School District dated between 1884 and 1985. Included within the transcriptions are the names of taxpayers for the district, school board meeting minutes, lists of teachers, financial records, and enumeration lists.

The Lone Star School in Howard Township, Gentry County, Missouri, operated between 1884 and 1895. According to the Recollections of the Early Days in Gentry County, the Lone Star School was originally a log structure that held classes as early as 1857.

Donor Information
