Historical Note:

Irene Whitley Marcus was born in Hartville, Missouri, on October 18, 1919, to Opal Denton Whitley and Frank James Whitley. In 1920, Irene and her sisters, Gertrude and Geneva, moved with their parents to Kansas City, Missouri, where they shared a house with their grandparents, John and Sallie Denton. In November 1920, Opal Whitley died of double pneumonia. Soon after Opal's death, Frank Whitley departed for California in search of employment, leaving Irene and her sisters to be cared for by John and Sallie Denton.

Irene and her sisters attended the all-Black Wendell Phillips Elementary School. After finishing elementary school, the Whitley sisters attended Lincoln High School, located at Nineteenth and Tracy. In 1936, Irene graduated from Lincoln High School and found work as a caretaker for the daughter of a woman her aunt knew. In October 1940, Irene married Adolphus Marcus; they were married until his death in 1988.

Irene attended St. Teresa's Agricultural College (now Avila University), where she received a Liberal Arts degree in 1956. She received her Master of Arts in education from the University of Missouri in 1969. Irene taught at Carver Center from 1956 to 1965 and later at Central Junior High School from 1965 to 1980.

Irene and her sisters were members of numerous social clubs and organizations in Kansas City. Irene was an honorary member in the Saturday Night Sixteen Club and held memberships in the Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, the American Bridge Association, the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), and other clubs. The Whitley sisters were also active participants of Bethel A.M.E. Church and were members for over 90 years. Irene died in 2023 at age 103.

More information on the Whitley family can be found in Gary Kremer's book, Race and Meaning: The African American Experience in Missouri.

Scope and Content Note:

Family

This series contains materials about the Bardwell, Denton, Marcus, and Whitley families. Of special interest are band programs, correspondence, diplomas, event invitations, report cards, World War II ration booklets, and other materials. Series is arranged alphabetically.

Clubs and Organizations

This series contains materials related to social clubs and organizations where Irene Marcus and her sisters, Geneva and Gertrude, were members. Most of the clubs and organizations were located in Kansas City; some of them are still active today.

Also included are materials related to Greek fraternities and sororities, such as Alpha Phi Alpha, Phi Delta Kappa, and others. Of special interest are materials about the Greater Kansas City Bridge Unit, Saturday Night Sixteen Club, Satellite Club, and the Twin Citian Club. Formed during World War II, the Twin Citian Club held their first meeting on January 9, 1943, at the Whitley sisters' home. Gertrude was among the club's charter members, as well as their first president. Members, known as "Twin Citians," gathered to play bridge and to host art and music programs. Later, they also held anniversary parties and balls, and hosted benefit functions to fundraise money for different causes. Series is arranged alphabetically.

The Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority subseries contains materials about the sorority's activities. Of special interest are documents related to their debutante balls, such as booklets, event programs, and planning materials. Subseries is arranged alphabetically.

Churches

This series contains materials related to churches in Kansas City, such as the Centennial United Methodist Church, Colored Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Paseo Baptist Church, and others. Series is arranged alphabetically.

The Bethel A.M.E. Church subseries consists of materials about the Bethel A.M.E. Church in Kansas City, Missouri. Irene and her sisters were long-standing members of the church. Of special interest are church, conference, and event programs. The church resides at 2329 Flora

Avenue. In 1912, the congregation constructed the church basement, where members gathered for worship over the following years. It was also the first African Methodist Episcopal church in the city constructed south of Eighteenth Street. Subseries is arranged alphabetically.

Education and Schooling

This series contains materials related to schools and universities in Missouri and Kansas, including Lincoln High School, Lincoln High School R.T. Coles, Lincoln University, R.T. Coles Vocational and Junior High School, Sumner High School, and others. During the era of segregation, Lincoln High School and R.T. Coles Vocational and Junior High School were the only public secondary education institutions open to African Americans in Kansas City, Missouri. Of special interest are materials related to class reunions, including correspondence, invitations, programs, and reports. Series is arranged alphabetically.

Yearbooks and Periodicals

The Yearbooks and Periodicals series consists of materials from Central High School, Lincoln High School, Lincoln Institute, Lincoln University, Manual High School, R.T. Coles Vocational and Junior High School, and Van Horn High School. Series is arranged alphabetically.

Funeral Programs and Obituaries

This series consists of funeral programs and obituaries. Individual funeral programs have been indexed. Series is arranged alphabetically.

Community Resources

This series contains materials concerning the African American community in Kansas City. It also includes materials related to individuals and families in the larger metropolitan area, such as Etta Moten, Perry Kirkpatrick, and others. Series is arranged alphabetically.

Photographs

This series contains thousands of photographs documenting the Black community, largely in the Kansas City metropolitan area, as well as in Missouri and Kansas. Photographs were taken by various well-known photographers, including Arthur E. Williamson, Robert L. Anderson, William L. Fambrough, and others.

The Clubs and Organizations subseries contains photographs documenting social clubs and organizations in Kansas City. Of special interest are photographs of the Bethel A.M.E. Church in Kansas City, Missouri, the Greater Kansas City Bridge Unit, the Twin Citian Club of Kansas City, Missouri, and Greek fraternities and sororities. Also included are photographs depicting social life in and around Kansas City. Subseries is arranged alphabetically.

The Family subseries contains photographs of the Bardwell, Carple, Denton, Marcus, and Whitley families in the nineteenth, twentieth, and twenty-first centuries. Of special interest are photographs of Irene, Geneva, and Gertrude Whitley, as well as photographs of Lawrence Denton and his involvement with jazz and blues music, and World War I. Subseries is arranged alphabetically.

The Community subseries contains photographs that did not fit within the scope of the Clubs and Organization and Family subseries and relate to the Black community in Kansas City and the state at large. Included are photographs of individuals, families, groups, and schools. Of special interest are photographs related to jazz and blues, military, and sports, as well as group photographs depicting daily life in and around Kansas City. Subseries is arranged alphabetically.

Scrapbooks

This series contains scrapbooks compiled by Irene. Included in the scrapbooks are event invitations and programs, letters, newspaper clippings, and photographs. Series is arranged alphabetically.

Audiovisual

This series contains audiovisual materials about Lincoln High School R.T. Coles, the Twin Citian Club, and the Whitley sisters. Series is arranged alphabetically.

Oversize

This series contains oversize materials, including items, photographs, and scrapbooks. Of special interest are photographs and scrapbooks of the Bardwell, Denton, Marcus, and Whitley families, as well as photographs of the Kansas City Monarchs, Lincoln High School, and the Twin Citian Club. Series is arranged alphabetically.
