Introduction
Approximately 51 cubic feet

The collection consists of the professional materials utilized by or produced by Atwell Loomis Bohling, Jr. while an editorial writer for the Kansas City Star. Materials include articles, newspaper clippings, correspondence, research materials, reporters’ notebooks and diaries, travel brochures, receipts, menus, publications, and photographs. Additional materials include personal items of Bohling’s such as notebooks from Yale and Northwestern University and theatre and opera programs.

Atwell Loomis Bohling, Jr. was born on April 14, 1922, in Sedalia, Missouri, to Atwell Loomis and Frances Carter Bohling. In 1940, he graduated from the Smith-Cotton High School and attended the Central Business College in Sedalia, Missouri, for a year. He graduated from the Yale University in New Haven, Connecticut, in 1947. Bohling served with the Signal Intelligence in the United States Army during World War II. In 1948, he began working for the Kansas City Star as an editorial writer. Between 1955 and 1977, Bohling served as the Kansas City correspondence for the New York Times. He died on May 17, 2000, in Sedalia, Missouri, and is buried at Memorial Park Cemetery, in Sedalia, Missouri.

Donor Information
The papers were donated to the University of Missouri by David Powell on February 3, 2002 (Accession No. KA1147).

Copyright and Restrictions
The Donor has given and assigned to the University of Missouri all rights of copyright, which the Donor has in the Materials and in such of the Donor’s works as may be found among any collections of Materials received by the University from others.

Location Note
The collection is stored offsite and will need to be retrieved before viewing.
