Introduction
Approximately 6 cubic feet

The collection consists of the research materials for Charles Edward Clark, a former Regional Director of the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC). Materials include newspaper clippings, journals, magazines, brochures, flyers, newsletters, and audio cassettes.

Charles Edward Clark served as the Regional Director of the United States Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) overseeing the states of Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, Nebraska, and Oklahoma. The EEOC is the entity responsible for enforcing federal laws concerning discrimination in the workforce based on an individual’s race, color, religion, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, national origin, age, or disability.

Donor Information
The papers were donated to the University of Missouri by Steve Clark on December 12, 2006 (Accession No. KA1498).

Copyright and Restrictions
The Donor has given and assigned to the University of Missouri all rights of copyright, which the Donor has in the Materials and in such of the Donor’s works as may be found among any collections of Materials received by the University from others.
