Historical Note:

Jesse Fay Lauck was born in Denver, Colorado, in 1888. Little historical information is known regarding his early years. In 1907, after graduating from the University of Pennsylvania, Lauck formed a partnership with architect Elmer Boillot in Kansas City, Missouri. Together they established the architectural firm of Boillot and Lauck designing many single-family homes in the Coleman Highlands, Sunset Hills, and Old Hyde Park neighborhoods in Kansas City between 1910 and 1920.

During the 1920s and 1930s, the firm began to design larger multi-family homes and apartment buildings. The firm collaborated with architect Nelle E. Peters to design the eight poet-themed apartment buildings. These apartments were named after the following authors: Thomas Carlyle, James Russell Lowell, Robert Browning, Washington Irving, Henry Wadsworth Longfellow, Robert Louis Stevenson, Eugene Field, and Mark Twain. Additional apartment complexes that Peters, Boillot, and Lauck designed were the Park Manor Apartments situated west of the Country Club Plaza.

Following the death of Elmer Boillot in 1947, Lauck continued the firm under the name J. F. Lauck and Associates. During the late 1940s through the 1950s Lauck began to design low-rise multi-family garden apartments and single family homes. Also during this time, Lauck began work on larger apartment complexes, primarily in the Quality Hill neighborhood in Kansas City.

Jesse Lauck married Besse Wasserkrug on November 6, 1915. He retired from his architectural career in 1966 and he passed away three years later on September 28, 1969.
