Final Tour in the Kansas City Area!

Missouri Bicentennial Quilt

The Missouri Bicentennial Quilt features blocks representing all 114 counties in Missouri including the Kansas City area. The Bicentennial Quilt has been on tour across the state throughout 2021 as part of the state’s 200th anniversary of statehood.

See it in Kansas City before it moves to its final location at the Missouri Quilt Museum in the Fall of 2022.

Quilt Exhibition:

Aug. 2 - Sept. 15, 2022
during regular visitor hours

Opening Reception Aug. 2, 4-6 p.m.
See the quilt and take a tour of the Kansas City Research Center!

State Historical Society of Missouri
Kansas City Research Center
Miller Nichols Library, 800 E. 51st. St., University of Missouri-Kansas City
Contact: 816-235-1543 | kansascity@shsmo.org

Visitors to Miller Nichols Library can find metered parking nearby in lot 40.
Single-day parking hang-tags can also be purchased at the SHSMO-KC office.