Dates: 1981-1997

Creator: Flader, Susan L.

Collection Size: 4.0 c.f.

Introduction A multidisciplinary team of scholars at the University of Missouri-Columbia spent three years researching the social and economic development of French colonial society in the middle Mississippi valley from about 1720 to 1830, with a focus on the earliest European community in Missouri, Ste. Genevieve. This collection contains printouts of their research.

Some of the research material is encoded, and thus is not often clear. For a brief explanation of the folder labels: the “Bios” folders in the first boxes contain encoded biographical information about the residents of Ste. Genevieve 1720-1830. The “BBook” folders contain encoded transcriptions of baptismal books. The “MBook” label refers to marriage records. “Slugs” are essentially indexes to the folders they reference; whereas most folders transcribe entries made chronologically, slugs are indexed by name.

Donor Information This collection was donated by Susan L. Flader in the spring of 2021.
