

C Philpott, Charles H., ed., "Letters of a Missourian Who Died in the Gold Rush," n.d.
1206 1 folder

This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri. If you would like more information, please contact us at shsresearch@umsystem.edu.

INTRODUCTION

Synopsis of letters written between 1848 and 1850 by Alexander M. Philpott, the editor's uncle. A.M. Philpott was a medical student in Jefferson City when he left for the gold fields. He died in Sacramento in 1850.

DONOR INFORMATION

The collection was donated to the State Historical Society of Missouri by Charles H. Philpott on 1 April 1955.

INDEX TERMS

Subject	Folders
Missouri, Jefferson City	1
Missouri, Middle Grove	1
Philpott, Alexander Martin	1