INTRODUCTION

To Frances Preston Blair, Washington City, from City of Jefferson, [MO], Apr. 22, 1831.

Governor Miller praised GLOBE'S "Republican character" and ordered a subscription. He pledged widespread support of Andrew Jackson in 1832 in Missouri in spite of "the defection of Clay, Calhoun and company." Miller desired the election of William H. Crawford as vice president in 1832.

DONOR INFORMATION

The papers were donated to the State Historical Society of Missouri by the Aldine Book Company on date unknown (Accession No. _____).
