Historical Note:

The director of Conley-Myers Bank, founded in Columbia, Missouri, was William T. Conley. The bank's cashier was S.M. Myers. The bank dealt primarily with the selling and buying of land, as well as housing transactions in several counties in central Missouri.

The Gillespy & Conley Lawyers office, located in Columbia, Missouri, was operated by Milton Robards Conley (1873-1918), who was appointed a notary public for the Boone County in 1918.

Arrangement:

The collection has been arranged into the following two series:

Conley-Myers Bank Records
Gillespy & Conley Lawyers Records

Scope and Content Note:

The Conley-Myers Bank and Gillespy & Conley Lawyers collection represents the records created by these two institutions in their business dealings during the first two decades of the 20th century. The records are mainly real estate trade documents, concerning the buying and selling land and housing, and stock-sharing in different enterprises in Missouri and Texas.

The Conley-Myers Bank series contains bank correspondence from 1911 to 1920; meeting minutes and articles of incorporation for the bank; trust deeds concerning land transactions in central Missouri; and stock certificates, meeting minutes, and legal documents relating to the McBaine Land Company, Lonoke Land Trust, Conley Building Company, and Alps and Woodside Land, Farming and Plantation Company.

The series also includes warranty deeds, sales contracts, and other documents relating to transactions made by Conley-Myers Bank and their partner, Orange Hill (Texas) Land Company in both Missouri and Texas as well as maps of Wayne and Washington Counties in Missouri and Orange Hill, Texas. This series has been arranged by type of document.

The Gillespy & Conley Lawyers Records series makes up the bulk of the collection. It contains various legal documents, deeds, contracts, correspondence, appeals and suits, and court decisions. The documents have been grouped alphabetically by case name. Where they were preserved, original envelopes with case names are included with the corresponding documents.
