Historical Note:

Founded in 1920, the American Civil Liberties Union (ACLU), a non-profit located in all fifty states, is a public interest law firm that defends civil liberties, principles of equality, and justice. Within the state of Missouri, the ACLU defends civil liberties through litigation, legislative action, and public educational programs.

Arrangement:

The collection has been arranged into the following two series:

Invitations and Newsletters
Oversize

Scope and Content Note:Invitations and Newsletters

This series contains ACLU event invitations and ACLU newsletters. The invitations are to a Bill of Rights Day celebration, ALCU's 65th anniversary auction, and the play "Inherit the Wind," 1983-1984. Also included are the ALCU Liberties newsletter, produced by the ACLU of Eastern Missouri, September 1983-August 1984.

Oversize

This series contains three posters produced by the ALCU. They include "The American Civil Liberties Union Illustrated Guide to the Bill of Rights" and "No More Monkey Business," which commemorates 50 years since the Scopes trial of 1925. Also included is a signed ACLU poster by artist Stan Gillum.
