Introduction

Articles, photographs, correspondence, and other writings of AP reporter Tad Bartimus. Also includes some personal material.

Donor Information

The papers were donated by Tad Bartimus on 20 October 1988. Multiple additions to the collection have been made by Bartimus from 1989 to 2020. An oral history interview was donated by Giovanna Dell'Orto on 17 August 2017. Additionally, video material concerning the Talk Story, Write Story project was donated by Beth Pike on 15 July 2019.

Restrictions

Requires written permission from donor or donor's husband to view and to photocopy materials. Donor retains copyright and literary property rights held in the papers. In the event the donor predeceases her husband, the materials shall remain closed during his lifetime.

Giovanna Dell'Orto retained copyright to the oral history she conducted with Bartimus in 2013 (box 13). The interview is closed until Bartimus' death. Beth Pike retained copyright to the Talk Story, Write Story material she donated.

Note: Material in boxes 1-9 have been arranged into series. Additional material has been added at the end of the collection and has not been organized into series.

Scope and Content Note

The Articles series (Boxes 1-2, 9) contains articles and columns written by Bartimus from 1964 to the present. Includes column she wrote for Belton Star-Herald while in high school, stories written during summer internships at Kansas City Star, stories for Columbia Missourian and Daily Tribune while in college, AP work in Topeka, Miami, Vietnam, Alaska, London, Central and South America, and as Roving Reporter and Special Correspondent in the American West. Also includes "Among Friends" columns.

The Correspondence series (Boxes 3-4) contains correspondence from 1961 to the present. Letters describe her problems as a young inexperienced reporter in Miami and her experiences in Vietnam and include correspondence with AP executives and friends.

ACCESSION CA5738
TAD BARTIMUS PAPERS

The Photographs series (Box 4) contains personal photographs of Bartimus from her youth to the 1990s including pictures from Miami, Vietnam, and Alaska. Also pictures from stories she worked on in the 1970s and 1980s and award ceremonies in 1990s.

The University of Alaska-Anchorage series (Box 5) documents Bartimus' stint as Atwood Professor of Journalism at UA-A from 1993-1996. Includes letters and evaluations from students, copies of the student publications she supervised, and evaluations of the Journalism Department.

The Speeches, conferences, and writings series (Box 5) contains speeches, information on conferences where Bartimus spoke, and her miscellaneous writings (non- AP writings). The Book subseries (Boxes 5-7) includes background information, notes, correspondence, and publicity regarding Trinity's Children and Requiem. Bartimus co-wrote Trinity's Children with fellow AP reporter Scott McCartney and she wrote the text for Requiem.

The Subject files series (Boxes 7-8) contains miscellaneous files from Bartimus' time in Miami, Vietnam, Alaska, and London, biographical and family information, and publicity clippings. Also contains her Pulitzer Prize entries, Pulitzer judging information, and the transcript from her oral history interview with the Washington Press Club Foundation.

The Rock Bottom Reminders series (Box 8) contains correspondence, photographs, and publicity clippings of the Rock Bottom Reminders, a music group made up of authors including Stephen King, Dave Barry, Amy Tan, Barbara Kingsolver, and Bartimus. Also contains the book they wrote entitled, Mid-Life Confidential.

The JAWS series (Box 9) includes correspondence, member lists and biographies, newsletters, photographs, and a scrapbook from the 1985 and 1986 JAWS meetings.

The Audiovisual Materials series includes audio cassette interviews for stories Bartimus worked on in Vietnam, Alaska, London, and the West. Also contains recordings from the Trinity's Children publicity tour, numerous interviews for The Nature Conservancy project, excerpts from Mid-Life Confidential, interviews and panel discussions with Bartimus, personal recordings made by and for Bartimus over the years, and "Among Friends" columns. Video cassettes include the Rock Bottom Reminders' 1992 performance, a Bob Atwood Tribute at the University of Alaska, news segments promoting Requiem and the Requiem Exhibit, and JAWS camps.
