ACCESSION CA6217
PHIL AND VIVIAN WILLIAMS COLLECTION

This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri, Research Center-Columbia. If you would like more information, please contact us at research@shsmo.org.

Dates: 1960s-2000s

Creator: Williams, Phil, collector
Williams, Vivian, collector

Collection Size: 0.3 cubic feet, 431 audio tapes, 300 CDs, 117 audio cassettes, 1 hard drive

Introduction

Fiddle music collected and recorded by Vivian and Phil Williams of Seattle, Washington, much of which was released on their Voyager Recordings label. Also includes publications produced by Voyager Recordings.

Donor Information

The collection was donated to the State Historical Society of Missouri by Phil and Vivian Williams.

Note:

The collection contains both analog and digital recordings. The digital files are located on an external hard drive in the A/V room. The files are numbered WTA1-WTA573. The donor provided descriptions up through WTA300. These descriptions are located at the end of this inventory. CD copies exist for recordings up through WTA187. The contents of WTA301-573 are unknown. The digital files include both digitized recordings and born digital recordings. Unfortunately, the analog recordings have not been identified with a WTA number, so it is not possible to cross-reference that information with the WTA descriptions.

in Louisiana when he recorded the Lp for us of Marc Savoy with the Balfas.)

Old-time Fiddle Concert, 11-13-71 (A Seattle Folklore Society fiddle concert. This tape features fiddler Joe Pancierzewski, backed up by Ellen Bush, banjo; Jeff Thorn, guitar; and Pauline Griffin, piano)

Box 3

Audio tapes

Joe Pancierzewski Archive Tape, n.d. (Joe Pancierzewski, fiddle; Vivian Williams, guitar. This probably was made right after we met Joe around 1971, and before we learned his tunes. We probably made it to learn the tunes and how to back them up for our first Lp of him.)

Neil Johnston, "Mixed Bag" (Master tapes) [2]

La Grande, 4-10-69 (This is reel 2 of the "Poor Richards Almanac" concert; reel 1 is in box 1.)

Square Dance Lp (This is a master tape for Voyager Lp release 901, featuring square dance callers in the Pacific Northwest.)

VRLP 305S Master, "Working Girl." (This is a master tape for Voyager Lp 305 "Women's Songs of Mountains, Mines & Mills, recorded in our living room, featuring Si & Cathy Kahn, with Jeff Thorn and Ellen Bush.)

Mt. Baker Fiddle Contest (In the late 1970s the Seattle Folklore Society ran a fiddle contest at the Mt. Baker Community Center in Seattle, followed by a dance. This was a "wide open" type of contest. Mark O'Connor won it. A lot of good fiddlers from this region participated.) [6]

Chuck Martin, Feb 7, 1965 (Chuck Martin was a great mandolin player from North Carolina, who moved to Ferndale, WA. This was recorded at the house of his friend, Spud Hanowell, on Spud's Loar Loar F5, subsequently sold to Ronny Reno. He is backed up by Rodger Wheeler, banjo; Vivian Williams, fiddle; Phil Williams, bass; Betty Martin, guitar.)

Clarence Langen, 11/29/70 (This probably was sent to us by Jim Griffith.)

National Folk Festival, Traditional Religious Music, 1972

Bill Monroe, Worcester, MA, 11-16-63 (Concert recording)

Ralph Stanley at John O.'s, 2-94 (This was recorded at John Oreleman's house on Waldron Island, WA, when John brought Stanley there. Here he is backed up by Charlie Sizemore, guitar; Vivian Williams, fiddle; Phil Williams, mandolin; Ron Holdridge, bass)

Missouri Picnic, August 1966 (The Missouri Picnic used to be held every year near Lyden, WA as there were a lot of folks from Missouri living in the region. Ellis Cowan, fiddler, was a principal organizer.)

Bluegrass Concert, Sedro Woolley, 7 May 1966 (This is one of many concerts in small towns in NW Washington featuring local bands.)

Bluegrass Concert, Sedro Woolley 5 March 68 (Another local bluegrass concert with Fred McFalls, banjo (NC); Paul Wiley, fiddle (KY), Ed Blanton, bass (NC), Ben Bryson, guitar (NC). Features Vivian Williams, fiddle;

- Barney Munger, banjo; and Phil Williams, bass) [3]
Oct. 23, 1965 (A bluegrass concert by locals previously listed, place unknown)
Fred, Sept 11, 1961 (Probably recorded at Fred McFall's house in Darrington, WA)
Fred McFalls, Oct. 15 1965 (Another tape recorded in Darrington, WA) Concert in Arlington, Turkey Pluckers, Carolina Mtn. Boys etc. (One of the local bluegrass concerts. The Turkey Pluckers were Vivian Williams, fiddle; Barney Munger, banjo; Loren Wohlgemuth, guitar, Phil Williams, bass.
The Carolina Mtn. Boys were Fred McFall's band. Roy Caudill, a banjo player from North Carolina who lived in N. Seattle also is on this tape.)
SFS Oldtime Music Concert, March 2, 1968
Weiser Jam Session, "Ike Yodeling," 1973 (Recorded by John Ross, KBOO, Portland OR)
Weiser Jam Sessions, "Vivian Skeans," 1973 (Recorded by John Ross, KBOO, Portland. Vivian Skeans was a fiddler from Idaho. The Sawtooth Mtn.
Boys were a bluegrass band from Corvallis, OR.) Kilby Snow Moonshine Interview (Recorded by Phil Williams driving somewhere in the car with Kilby Snow, autoharp player, talking about making moonshine.)

- Fiddle Contest Jam Sessions Lp 301 (Master tapes for Voyager Lp 301 "Fiddle Jam Sessions") [2]
318 Master 1 Cascade Country VRLP 318S (Master tape for Voyager Lp 318, Side 1, presently out of press. Chuck Griffin, a great "show" fiddler from Olympia, WA, is in this group, as is his wife, Pauline, who plays piano.
Johnny and Nettie Williams, Olympia, play guitar and sing.)
Northwest Regional Folklife Festival Playhouse Concert, 1972 (Joe Pancerzewski, fiddle; with Dick Marvin, guitar. Andy Wallace and Mike Rivers. Benny Thomasson, fiddle; Dick Marvin, guitar; Phil Williams, mandolin; Vivian Williams, bass)
The Old Hat Band VRLP 307S (Master tapes for Voyager Lp 307, presently out of press. The Old Hat Band consisted of John Burke, fiddle; Ellen Bush, banjo; and Jeff Thorn, guitar and fiddle. This was recorded and released in the early 1970s.) [2] VRLP 309, Benny & Jerry Thomasson. (Master tapes for Voyager Lp 309. It was recorded at Weiser in 1962 in the campground) [2]

Granada Fiddle Contest, 1972? (At the Granada Theater, West Seattle) [3]
Folklore Society Concert, Oct. 12, 1968 (This was a concert put on by the Seattle Folklore Society featuring traditional musicians who had moved to Western Washington from the South. Tapes 1-4 feature the Mills Family - Lulla Bell (mother), Grady & Don, sons, - originally from Western North Carolina, with Phil Williams on bass. They did primarily gospel music. Irwin Nash, a local banjo player who introduced us to the tarheels in Darrington in 1960, plays a couple banjo tunes at the end of tape 4.) [4]
Reach Show, Holiday Inn, Bellevue (WA), April 15, 1973 (This is another fiddle show put on by the REACH organization.)
Puyallup Fiddle Show Jam Session, 11/20/71 (Probably a District 6, WOTFA show) [2]
Joe Pancerzewski, Clubhouse, Jan. 1975 (A concert put on by the Seattle Folklore Society at their Clubhouse, Seattle.)
Tall Timber, Joe Pancerzewski, Jim Calvert Live Show - end. (This was a performance by Tall Timber - Vivian Williams, fiddle; Barney Munger, banjo; Phil Williams, mandolin; Dick Marvin, guitar; Lou Herrington, bass - at the Inside Passage, a tavern performance room in Pioneer Square, Seattle, with sets by Pancerzeski and fiddler Jim Calvert.)

- WA. Some interesting fiddlers entered this contest, including Benny Thomasson.)
- Joe raw Master - Excerpted 1 (This is a tape of selections recorded for Joe Pancerzewski's Voyager Lp 306, "The Fiddling Engineer.")
- WLS Don Messer (recording made off a radio broadcast by Grant Lamb, Portage la Prairie, Manitoba)
- Weiser Fiddle Contest, Jam Sessions, 1966
- Joe Pancerzewski in dining room, 2/13/73 (recording made in our dining room)
- Joe Pancerzewski, April 10, 1973 (Another informal tape of Joe.)
- American Oldtime Music Festival Workshop, SFS Clubhouse, Apr. 10, 1975
(This was recorded by me at a workshop hosted by Mike Seeger at the Seattle Folklore Society "Clubhouse," featuring Tommy Jarrell, Blanton Owen, Dennis McGee, S. D. Corville, and Marc Savoy.)
- Kent Fiddle Show, Feb. 1975 (A WOTFA fiddle show in Kent, WA)
- #2 Joe Pancerzewski – Clubhouse, Jan. '75 (A concert at the SFS Clubhouse, Seattle.)
- Puyallup Fiddle Show, 10-5-75 (A WOTFA fiddle show) [5]
- Ed Morken (In blue Sony tape box. Ed Morken was a good traditional button accordion player who lived in Centralia, WA. I do not know who recorded this one.)
- Weiser Jam Session at Camp, 1975 (On the tape are Grant Lamb, Manitoba; Dean Trammel, California; J. C. Gentle, Oregon; and probably us and others.)
- Vivian and Dick Marvin Foxtrot Chord Tape (This was made in our living room where Dick Marvin, guitar, was trying to figure out chords for foxtrots being played by Vivian.)
- Steve Crawford (Crawford was a fiddler from the Bremerton, WA, area, where these tapes were made by fiddler Joseph Hanson and sent to us. Steve, long gone, was very popular at WOTFA and other fiddle shows in this area in the 1960s and '70s.) [3]
- SFS Oldtime Music Concert, 2 March 1968 (A Seattle Folklore Society concert produced by us. A concert program is in the box. Fred McFalls & Ben Bryson were from Silva, NC; Ellis Covin, from Missouri, backed up by Ivan Hart, Missouri, both living in Whatcom Country, WA; Paul Wiley was from Eastern Kentucky, living in Lynnwood, WA. He usually played banjo, but here he is playing fiddle, backed by Roy Caudill from NC on banjo.)
- Fiddle Radio Show (Shamrock tape. This was a show from KRAB FM, Seattle, featuring old 78s, as well as live performances by fiddler Hank Bradley, Seattle, backed up by Jeff Thorn.)
- Ellis Cowin at his house, Ivan calling cows, Summer 1970 (Ellis, fiddle, and Ivan Hart, guitar, originally from Missouri, lived outside Lynden and Sumas, WA, respectively. Ivan farmed and worked for other farmers. He often played with Ellis. We took the tape recorder out to Ivan's pasture to record him calling in his cows.)

ACCESSION CA6217

- Jam at Benny's (Before Longview contest) (This is a jam session at Benny Thomasson's house on the Kalama River prior to the Longview fiddle contest in 1974)
- Chuck Martin, Fred McFalls, Paul Wiley, Aug. 7, 1966 (Chuck, mandolin, and Fred, banjo, were mainstays of the Darrington, WA "tarheel" community. Paul Wiley is a great oldtime and bluegrass musician from rural Kentucky, who lived in Lynnwood, WA, and went back to Kentucky when he retired. He played with Bill Monroe in 1967.)
- Smithsonian Fiddle Contest, 1973 (This is the original tape recorded on our Uher recorder of the 1973 fiddle contest at the Smithsonian Folklife Festival, Washington, D. C., which Vivian won.)
- Beanblossom, 1969 (Tapes made on our Uher recorder at the 1969 Bill Monroe Beanblossom bluegrass festival.) [2]
- Ralph Stanley at John O's, 2/94 (Edited copy from cassette – a recording made at John Orleman's house, Waldron Island, WA, when Stanley came to visit. Other musicians are Charlie Sizemore, guitar; Vivian Williams, fiddle; Phil Williams, mandolin; Ron Holdridge, bass.)
- Benny Thomasson - Clarinet Polka, Soppin the Gravey (unboxed 5" reel)
- Weiser Jam Sessions, 1973 (Featuring Fay Snead, fiddle, originally from Arkansas, living in Weiser, ID; John Burke, Seattle (the author of Burke's fiddle tunes for banjo book); Loyd Wanzer, Caldwell, ID, and Benny Thomasson, Kalama, WA)
- Astoria Fiddle Contest, 1/20/73 #1 (Recorded at a fiddle contest in Astoria, OR.)
- Beanblossom, 1969 #19
- Benny Thomasson & Dudley Hill - Benny Jam Session 15. (This probably was a jam session with Benny and Dudley Hill, Tacoma, WA, a guitar player who played a lot with Benny and did a guitar lead Lp for us, now issued as Voyager CD 317.)
- Benny Thomasson - Roy Lee Cowan Jam Session in Campground, Weiser 1972. (Roy Lee Cowan was a great fiddler from Oklahoma. This is the first year Benny was at Weiser.)
- Fred McFalls, Sept. 10, 1961 (This probably was recorded at Fred's house in Darrington, WA. [2])
- Benny Thomasson, Jerry Thomasson, Dudley Hill, 3/3/74 (Recorded in our living room when we were recording the Dudley Hill Lp. Jerry is playing tenor guitar, Dudley, his D28.)

- Bellevue Fiddle Contest, 3-1-74 (This is a fiddle contest sponsored by REACH, a senior volunteer organization, held at the Bellevue, WA High School) [2]
- Bellevue Fiddle Contest, 3-2-74 (This is the second day of the above contest.) [2]
- Benny Thomasson, 3/3/74 (With Jerry Thomasson, tenor guitar; Dudley Hill, Guitar. Recorded in Williams' living room.) [4]

ACCESSION CA6217
PHIL AND VIVIAN WILLIAMS COLLECTION

- Benny Thomasson and Dick Barrett, 5-11-70 (This probably was recorded when Benny and Dick were in Seattle as part of a concert tour. The Seattle Folklore Society put on a concert of them at their Clubhouse, and also make a half hour videotape at the U. of Washington TV station. I am not sure whether this tape is from the concert or from a jam session.)
- Benny Thomasson Jam, Weiser, 1975
- Benny Thomasson - Guitar Inst. Enumclaw 1972 (5" reel) (This really is a jam session at the fiddle contest in Enumclaw, WA. Besides Benny, I recognize Chuck Griffin, Olympia, WA, and possibly Joe Panczewski.)
- Grant Lamb Master VRLP 312 (Master tapes for Voyager Lp release 312. It is now out on the Voyager Grant Lamb CD. Grant was a regular visitor at our house and we learned a lot of tunes from him. He was Manitoba fiddle champion in 1952, a friend of Don Messer, and one of the last of the great Canadian prairie old time dance fiddlers.) [2]
- Fiddle Jam Session Volume 2 rejects (When we did our second Voyager "Fiddle Jam Sessions" Lp , we had a lot of field recordings to choose from. These are some of selections that did not make the Lp for lack of room, but are good nevertheless. Most of these were recorded at Weiser in the late 1960s.)
- OHB Master Reel 1 (This is side one of Voyager Lp 307, never released on CD. The "Old Hat Band" was an "urban old time string band" formed in Seattle in the early 1970s. It was composed of John Burke, fiddle (the author of "Burke's Banjo Book). Jeff Thorn, fiddle, guitar; and Ellen Bush, banjo. They toured the West Coast in a Model A truck decked out like a medicine show wagon, and did "humorous" skits, etc.)
- VRLP207-S OHB raw master reel 4 (Session tape four from the Old Hat Band Lp recording, done in our living room.)
- Carolina Mtn. Boys – Hymns, March 21, 1965 (The Carolina Mountain Boys, tarheels from Darrington, WA, doing hymns. The band was headed by Fred McFalls, banjo. Not sure who was in the band for this recording. Probably Ben Bryson, Chuck Martin, Ed Blanton, all originally from around Silva, NC.)
- Puyallup Fiddle Show Jam Session (A jam session at a fiddle contest in Puyallup, WA in the early 1970s.)
- Granada - March 3, 1973 (Probably a fiddle show at the Granada Theater, West Seattle.)
- Ace Sewell Protection Copy (Voyage issued an Lp of Ace Sewell from Oklahoma, which was not reissued as a CD. The original masters were sent to friends of Mr. Sewell many years ago, but we have not heard of anything being done with them, so this production probably is long out of press. Sewell was a well-known fiddle champion in Oklahoma.) [2]
- Louis Boudreault Protection Copy II (We had this production, Voyager Lp 322, recorded for us at a friend's studio in Portland, OR, when Boudreault came through with Mike Seeger on one of the "heritage" tours Mike was arranging at the time. Boudreault was one of the best, and last of the great French Canadian fiddlers who really understood and played their unique style of the tunes. He was only in Seattle for the concert they gave, but had a couple days in Portland before the concert there, so we were able to arrange this recording. Louis taught me something about recording I use to this day. He said he was certain that he would make mistakes in trying to remember and/or play some of the complex tunes. Rather than stop and start the take over, he just continued through the part he made the mistake in, repeat it, and then tell me the sections to cut out to splice together the rest to make a "take" with no errors. I had to make over 70 splices to complete the master tapes to his satisfaction. This is still one of my most favorites of all the fiddlers we have released on Voyager.)

VRLP 305 Working Girl Masters (Master tapes for Voyager Lp 305, not reissued on CD. These title of the Lp is "Women's Songs of Mountains, Mines, and Mills." It features Kathy Kahn, produce and vocals. Kathy was a union organizer in the South, a collector of labor songs, author of the book "Hillbilly Women," and, at that time, the wife of folksinger Si Kahn, living in Mineral Bluff, Georgia. They showed up unannounced on our doorstep in the middle of winter in 1971 and said they wanted make a record. We put together a band, they called the "Cut Cane Ramblers String Band," and recorded the production in our living room to our Magnecord 1028 tape recorder. The band was Si Kahn, guitar, fiddle; Ellen Bush - guitar, banjo; Jeff Thorn - banjo, fiddle guitar; Phil Williams, mandolin; Vivian Willams, guitar. Many copies of this Lp were distributed by labor unions in the South.) [2]

Dudley - Raw Masters (Master tapes for Voyager Lp 317, now in press as Voyager CD 317. Dudley Hill was one of the first to record a record of lead acoustic guitar playing fiddle tunes. He played a lot with Benny Thomason and other Northwest fiddlers, and wanted to feature them along with him on this production. The musicians are: Benny Thomasson, fiddle, Jerry Thomasson, Tenor guitar, Phil Williams bass, on Spotted Pony, Bitter Creek, Herman's Hornpipe, and Cotton Patch Rag. Ellen Marx, clawhammer banjo on Sally Ann and The Downfall of Paris, along with Jeff Thorn, rhythm guitar on Buffalo Gals and Weber's Drift. Frank Ferrel, fiddle; Mark Graham, harmonica, Ellen Marx, piano on Off She Goes and St. Anne's Reel. Barbara Lamb and Vivian Williams, fiddles; Phil Williams, mandolin; Barney Munger, banjo; Dick Marvin, rhythm guitar, and Lou Harrington, bass on Whiskey Before Breakfast and Fisher's Hornpipe. Scott Smith, piano; Vivian Williams, fiddle; Jeff Thorn, rhythm guitar; Phil Williams, bass on Panhandle Rag and South.) [2]

Carolina Mt. Boys at Sedro-Wooley, May 2-3, 1964. (This tape features the

- "tarheel" Carolina Mountain Boys and probably others. There were several informal "bluegrass" concerts featuring local performers in a hall in Sedro Wooley, about 60 miles north of Seattle, during this period.)
- W & B rehearsal, 2/5/96 (This is a rehearsal tape of our most recent bluegrass band, Williams & Bray, featuring Harley Bray, banjo, of the Illinois band, "The Bluegrass Gentlemen," a.k.a. "Red Cravens & the Bray Brothers, who made a couple records in the early 1960s, which were released by Rounder on CD. They also played at Bill Monroe's Beanblossom festival, and on the Grand Ole Opry. Others in the band are Shera Bray, guitar; Vivian Williams, fiddle; Phil Williams, mandolin; Nancy Katz, bass.)
- VRLP304, "More Fiddle Jam Sessions" (Master tapes for Voyager Lp 304, field recordings of jam sessions mostly from the Weiser fiddle contest. It was issued in the early 1970s. Some of the selections are in press on Voyager's CD 301 "Fiddle Jam Sessions.") [2]
- VRLP 304 Rejects. (These are field recording cuts not used on Voyager LP 304, nor on the reissued combined "Fiddle Jam Sessions," Voyager CD 301. The list of fiddlers and tunes is in the box.)
- Bob Ruff - Caller (This is a recording of square dance caller Bob Ruff calling a dance in Seattle. The tape came from Northwest square dance caller Kappie Kappenman. We have played for him since the Seattle World's Fair in 1962. He has been on the board of the Wester Square Dance Federation, and is one of the few callers left who can call to live music very well. Ruff here is using records. We thought that this is a good recording of a calling style hardly heard today in the West, and one not picked up by the younger generation of callers. Track 4 is a copy of a tape sent to Kappie from a square dance caller in England.)

Grant (Capitol Unrecorded Cassette) (Grant Lamb, from Portage La Prairie, Manitoba, visited us often and we released a CD of him. This is a jam session cassette made in our house in Seattle.)

Jim Herd, Kittitas, 8/1/97 (Jim Herd, originally from Missouri, lived in Sunnyside, WA for fifty years. This cassette was recorded at the Washington Fiddlers annual "Workshop" in Kittitas, WA in 1997. We issued a CD of Mr. Herd recorded in our campground at Weiser in 1991. Rounder recording engineer and producer Mark Wilson, who came to Washington to record Mr. Herd for Rounder's "Missouri Fiddling" release, told us that a lot of older fiddlers he recorded in Missouri talked about learning tunes fifty years ago from a "Bert Herd," but they didn't know what happened to him. Jim Herd was "Bert" when he lived in Missouri. After we put out the CD of him, folks finally knew to where he had disappeared. Jim passed away a few years ago.)

Fiddle Jams Anthology Tape 1 (A collection of fiddle field recordings we made in 1973. A list of performers is enclosed in the cassette box. Fay Sneed was a Weiser resident, originally from Arkansas. He jammed with us a lot and we were some of the few at Weiser who appreciated his fiddling. John Burke is the Burke who wrote the "fiddle tunes for the banjo" book. Loyd Wanzer won Weiser several times early on. He was a major person in the development of the Idaho Fiddlers, played left handed, and originally from Oklahoma. He lived in Caldwell, ID. Benny Thomasson's backup is Vivian and Phil Williams, and David Johns of Quincy, CA).

- Weiser 1991 Jam - Harley Worthington, "Girlgrass" hippie camp, Friday night.
Weiser 1991 - Hippie camp, Saturday.
Weiser Jam '97 Laurie & Howie Meltzer (Howie Meltzer is an "old timey" fiddler from Bellingham, WA. His wife, Laurie, play banjo.)
Jimmy Widner, 1977 (Recorded at Weiser campground in 1977. Jimmy Widner is a Montana fiddler. In his younger days he had a Country/Western band called the "Snake River Outlaws" that played throughout Idaho and Montana. He lived in Weiser for a while. In 1964 he was living in Missoula, MT, and was playing in a tavern, backed up by my brother, Bob. This is how we learned about the Missoula National Fiddle Contest that year. He now lives in Darby, MT.)
Weiser, 1977 Top 20 (The Weiser contest used to have one big division for everyone, and only a Ladies and Senior as other divisions. The main contest would be eliminated down to the "Top 20." If you could make it into the Top 20, you got status at Weiser, and would be put in the pool of fiddlers deemed competent to judge the contest.) [3]

Weiser '78 [12]
Idaho State Contest, 4-3-76
Sonny Miller (Virginia fiddler Sonny Newman visited us sometime in the 1970s. He was in Seattle playing with Olabelle Reed. Vivian Williams and Ellen Bush are trading off on piano; Phil Williams, bass.)
Gerry Robichaud, Gilles Losier, VTW, Seattle, 7-8-80 (Robichaud, a French Canadian fiddler from Waltham, Massachusetts, and Giles Losier, fiddler and backup musician from Montreal, stayed at our house on their way home from the Festival of American Fiddle Tunes. This is a tape of a jam session they had with us. We had issued an Lp of Robichaud.)
Chuck Griffin, 2/18/76 (Chuck Griffin grew up in Arizona, but lived in Olympia, WA most of his life. He fiddled for a lot of dances during the heyday of the “roadhouse” dance halls. He was usually backed up by his wife, Pauline, on piano.)

- Weiser Campground, 1972 (Side A is a campground jam with Benny Thomasson and Roy Lee Cowan. The guitarist playing with them probably is Dudley Hill from Seattle. Side B starts with Jeff Thorn and Ellen Bush (banjo) in the campground. They performed “old timey” music, and played all over the West Coast with John Burke as “The Old Hat Band” during this period. This side ends with excerpts from the 172 Weiser contest, including Texas fiddler, Dick Barrett, Oregon/Idaho fiddler Don Gish (a founder of the Washington Old Time Fiddlers). Jana Greif (who came from Payette, ID), Dean Tramell (from Earlemont, CA), Roy Lee Cowan (Oklahoma), Bill Yohey (Oregon).
- Benny Thomasson Dudley Tape (This cassette was given to us by Dudley Hill, who recorded it at Benny’s, Kalama, WA. He was Benny’s main guitar player when Benny moved to Washington.)
- Carl MacKenzie Tunes Instruction (It is a tape of MacKenzie playing tunes and breaking them down for instruction purposes.)
- Mavis Anderson - Bill Long & Orlon Austin (This cassette was given to us by Mavis Anderson. The fiddler on Side A appears to be Benny Thomasson. Side B is Bill Long from Montana.)
- Penticton Fiddle Contest, 3/9/74 (The annual contest at Penticton, B.C. was a major one in this region, attracting both Canadian and U.S. fiddlers.) [4]
- Dance with the B.C. Old Time Fiddlers Br. #6, Vernon, B.C. (This cassette was put out by the Vernon, B.C., branch of the B.C. fiddlers. Vernon hosted a fiddle contest attended by Canadian and fiddlers from the U.S.)
- Grass Valley Jam Session, 6-19-81 (This cassette was sent us by a person who recorded the jam session at the 1981 Grass Valley Bluegrass Festival. The jam features Sonny Miller from Virginia; Vivian Williams and Barbara Lamb, from Seattle; Phil Williams, guitar, and others. Side B is a performance of our bluegrass band, Tall Timber, at this festival, recorded from the audience.)
- Sonny Miller - Jam at Williams; Benny Thomasson - Dudley Hill Tape (This cassette is a compilation from two cassettes. The Sonny Miller session was recorded in our living room, with Vivian Williams and Ellen Marx trading off on piano, and Phil Williams on bass. Mr. Miller is featured on County Records “Virginia Breakdown” Lp. The B side is from a cassette recorded by guitar player Dudley Hill at Benny’s house on the Kalama River. Dudley played a lot with Benny and went to his place to work out tunes.)
- Mabel & Vivian, Weiser, 1989 (This cassette was recorded by friend Barry Brower of a jam session featuring fiddlers Mabel Vogt, Potlatch, ID, and Vivian Williams, Seattle, backed up by Phil Williams, guitar, and later with Barry Brower on guitar and Phil on mandolin.)

Oldtime Fiddle Contest, 1976 (I do not know where this contest was held nor under what auspices. The M.C. was prominent Northwest dance fiddler Jim Calvert.)

Audio tapes

Caudill & Vannoy, 9/26/63 (This tape was recorded by Irwin Nash at the home of Henry Vannoy outside of Arlington, WA. Mr. Vannoy was from North Carolina, and around 80 years old at the time. He played great traditional fiddle and old time banjo. Playing with him was another North Carolina “transplant,” living in Seattle, Roy Caudill, who was in his 70s, playing his Bacon Silver Belle banjo.)

Don Messer Radio Program (This was recorded off the air by fiddler Grant Lamb, Portage la Prairie, Manitoba.)

Joe Pancierzewski Program, Joe Pancierzewski Interview with Frank Ferrel, 2/20/70 (This is an interview of fiddler Joe Pancierzewski by Frank Ferrel for a radio broadcast.)

Contra Music Instrumentals, Bruce Johnson, Santa Barbara, California (This tape was sent to us some time ago. We know little about it, except that it appears to have a Canadian or Canadian style fiddler, probably from records, for music behind the square dance calling of Mr. Johnson.)
