

PRELIMINARY INVENTORY
ACCESSION CA6379
WARREN R. DALTON JR. PAPERS

This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri, Research Center-Columbia. If you would like more information, please contact us at research@shsmo.org.

Dates: no date

Creator: Dalton, Warren R., Jr.

Collection Size: 1 cubic foot

Introduction

Papers of an author, columnist, and landlord from Columbia, Missouri. Collection largely consists of material pertaining to Dalton's writings, including research, correspondence, and drafts. Also includes some family material, including correspondence and miscellaneous papers of Walter William Dalton.

Donor Information

The papers were donated to the State Historical Society of Missouri by Warren R. Dalton Jr. and Dick Dalton.

Box List

Box 1

Correspondence and miscellaneous papers of Walter William Dalton
"From the Sale of Guitar Street Lots to Dr. James H. Bennett in 1833 to the Beginning of Christian Female College in 1851" by Warren R. Dalton and David James Article by W.R. Inge Dalton published in the Seattle Mail and Herald, n.d.
Warren Dalton—Personal (2 folders)
Writings of Robert and Hunter Dalton
Business indexes, Columbia 1800s
Future columns
 Doctors 20th century
 Railroads
 Newspapers
 Ruth Knight, Ross Brown, and Ella Bass Allen Miller
Gentry Family—Pre-Columbia history
E.W. Kahl—Telephone Company
Osher class on Columbia History (5 folders)
Writings, 1800s-1900s
Columbia Yesteryear—Letters
The Shack
Mizzou Columns
Haden House
Amish History
Mort Walker info
Parkade
Missouri Theatre
Columbia History (3 folders)

ACCESSION CA6379
WARREN R. DALTON JR. PAPERS

Odus Powell pictures, 1944-1945

Charles M. Strong

Transcript of North Todd Gentry Papers (2 folders)