Dates: 1990-2025

Creator: Stack, Jeff

Collection Size: 17.4 c.f., 60 CD's

Introduction

The papers of a Columbia, Missouri activist and reformer involved with various organizations to attempt to change societal norms and laws. The papers include his work with Missourians to Abolish the Death Penalty (MADP), Mid-Missouri Fellowship of Reconciliation (FOR), and the Missouri Institute for Mental Health (MIMH). Also included are materials on anti-Iraq War protests, counseling young people on the realities of war, anti-draft sentiments, and on the conscientious objector.

Donor Information

The papers were donated to the State Historical Society of Missouri by Jeff Stack on August 12, 2025.
