BIOGRAPHY:

Harold Roe Bartle was born in Richmond, Virginia, in 1901. Bartle received his preparatory education at Fork Union Military Academy in Virginia. He later received an LL.B. from the University of Chattanooga in 1920 and a J.D. from the Hamilton College of Law in Chicago. He was admitted to the bar in Kentucky in 1920 and entered the firm of Russell and Taylor in Lebanon, Kentucky. In 1921 he entered the Missouri bar but did not practice law in Missouri because he entered professional scouting. As a young attorney and scout executive, he felt that age would help his credibility, so he added ten years to his birth date, saying he was born in 1891.

In 1923 Bartle became a professional scout serving as scout executive in three councils. From 1923-1925 he served in Casper, Wyoming; from 1925-1928 in St. Joseph, Missouri; and from 1928 to 1955 in Kansas City, Missouri. While a scout executive, Bartle served as a public speaker, financial counselor and in public relations. His single greatest source of income was public speaking.

He was active in the Presbyterian Church and served as president of the Board of Trustees and later as president of the Missouri Valley College, a Presbyterian College in Marshall, Missouri.

He founded the American Humanics Foundation, a philanthropic and educational foundation providing specialized education for young people desiring to enter youth agency leadership as a professional field. He served as an administrator for the Foundation until 1957 and then continued as a member of the Board and the Executive Committee until his death. In 1955, Bartle ran for Mayor of Kansas City on the Citizens Association ticket. He had no previous political experience but he ran a successful campaign. He continued in that office until 1963.

On May 9, 1974, Roe Bartle died in Kansas City, Missouri.
