

PRELIMINARY INVENTORY
K0388 (KA1117)
INSTITUTE FOR STUDIES IN AMERICAN MUSIC RECORDS

This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri Research Center-Kansas City. If you would like more information, please contact us at kansascity@shsmo.org.

Introduction

Approximately 0.1 cubic foot.

The collection consists of an annual report, classroom presentations, photocopies of slides, listings of American musicians and some of their works, and photographs pertaining to the Institute for Studies in American Music, once a part of the University of Missouri-Kansas City Conservatory of Music.

The University of Missouri-Kansas City Conservatory of Music established the Institute for Studies in American Music for the purpose of identifying and defining "American Music," build a collection relating to that music, promote the understanding of American music through education and performances, and to establish an intercollegiate American Music Communications Center. The Junior Service League of Kansas City assisted the Institute in collecting and processing materials for the Institute's library as well as provided classroom presentations on American music.

Donor Information

The records were donated to the University of Missouri by the University of Missouri-Kansas City, Miller Nichols Library on February 27, 2001 (Accession No. KA1117).

Copyright and Restrictions

The Donor has given and assigned to the University of Missouri all rights of copyright, which the Donor has in the Materials and in such of the Donor's works as may be found among any collections of Materials received by the University from others.

Location Note
