Introduction

Approximately 0.3 cubic foot.

The collection consists of two manuscripts written by Arthur Giles Carrol Mitchell concerning architecture in Kansas City, Missouri. Additional materials include correspondence, certificates, a photograph, and sketches pertaining to Mitchell.

Arthur Giles Carrol Mitchell graduated from the University of Kansas with a bachelor's degree in engineering and architecture in 1929. After graduation, Mitchell took courses in accounting and business law at Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri. Following his educational training, Mitchell worked for various architectural firms in the Kansas City metropolitan area and later worked for the federal government as an engineer and architect. Mitchell was also employed by the architectural department of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company.

Donor Information
