Historical Note:

The first meeting of the Kansas City Alumnae Association of Kappa Kappa Gamma took place on April 19, 1900. The organization has been actively involved in philanthropic activities in the Kansas City Metropolitan area ever since.

The organization is best known for its annual holiday house tours. Each year several affluent homeowners in the Kansas City area open their homes to the public for viewing of holiday décor. Since its inception, the tours have raised more than $2 million for local non-profits and the Kappa Kappa Gamma Foundation.

Arrangement:

This collection is a single scrapbook arranged in chronological order by the creator.
