INSTITUTIONAL SKETCH

Congregation Ohev Sholom of Prairie Village, Kansas, is a Jewish congregation affiliated with the United Synagogue of Conservative Judaism. Located in the greater Kansas City area, Congregation Ohev Sholom is the oldest Jewish congregation in Kansas and celebrated its 130th anniversary in April 2007.

SCOPE AND CONTENT NOTE

The collection has been arranged alphabetically into three folders.

There are two commemorative booklet folders. The first folder contains the 100th Anniversary book. This item contains historical information related to the formation of the congregation, and its members. The second folder contains two small volumes related to the 130 year Anniversary of the congregation. The first item, Our Deepest Roots: A History of our Forerunners similarly contains stories of important Jewish figures of the community and the history of the congregation. The second volume, Our Roots Run Deep is a program booklet for the 130 year celebration.

The Rabbi Daniel Horwitz folder contains a DVD with a program honoring the rabbi at a farewell ceremony. Members of the Ohev Sholom Congregation, including current and past congregation presidents, speak. There are also small sketches of a humorous nature.
