Processed by: Whitney Heinzmann and intern, Caitlin Lewis, May 2018

Historical Note:

Nat Milgram began Milgram Food Stores, Inc. in 1913. The original store was located on 18th and Minnesota in Kansas City, Missouri, and eventually there were 37 stores across the greater Kansas City area. Milgram's motto was "Hi Neighbor," which signified their desire to be a part of the community the store was located. The store ran a newspaper called Hi Neighbor! News, which was edited by Alan Chapman throughout the 1960s.

Arrangement:

The collection has been arranged into three folders.

Scope and Content Note:

The collection features a complete run of monthly issues from Milgram Food Stores, Inc.'s Hi Neighbor! News dating from 1967 to 1969 as well as newspaper clippings concerning advertisements of Milgram's in The Kansas City Jewish Chronicle and The Independence Examiner. A May 2, 1953, guestbook from the All American Food Fair is also included.
