K1013

John F. Cameron Papers

1950s-2014

10 cubic feet, oversize flat and rolled items

John F. Cameron was a real estate broker and owner of a real estate company in Kansas City. The papers include newsletters, sermons, and materials pertaining to the Catholic and Redeemer Presbyterian Churches. Additionally, the collection contains maps, plans, brochures, and books relating to Cameron's real estate activities.

HISTORY:

John Cameron founded Forever Green of Missouri, LLC, a real estate company, which disbanded following its defeat in a lawsuit filed against the North Kansas City Levee District over a contested land purchase. This case is documented in the North Kansas City Levee District v. Forever Green of Missouri, LLC Papers, (K1111). Raised a Roman Catholic, Cameron left the church following a disillusioning sojourn at the Shantivanam retreat featuring statues of non-Christian deities. Subsequently, he joined the Redeemer Presbyterian Church and became active in missionary work along the U.S.-Mexican border.

PROVENANCE:

This gift was received from John Cameron as accession KA1734 on July 17, 2009. Accession KA2171 was received on December 6, 2013.
