Missouri and Associated Rivers Coalition (MOARC) Records

ca. 1935-ca. 1984

21 cubic feet

Records of the organization involved in flood control and better water management in the Missouri River Valley.

HISTORY:

Missouri and Associated Rivers Coalition (MOARC) was created in 1952 by a group of individuals desiring better water management in the Missouri River Valley. Members today include organizations, individuals, associations, companies and governmental units whose focus is sound flood control programs and conservation of land-water resources. MoArc has supported programs in the Kansas River Basin, the Marais des Cygnes-Osage Basin, the Missouri River Basin, in Iowa, and the Arkansas River Basin. See <http://www.moarc.org/>.
