Historical Note:

The general merchandise firm of Janis & Vallé was formed in October 1855 after the death of Felix Janis and the dissolution of his firm, Felix Janis & Co. The firm was succeeded by Janis & Vallé and was started by Henry L. Janis, Jules F. Janis, and L. Bert Vallé, who were sons and son-in-law, respectively of Henry Janis of Fredericktown, Missouri. Henry L. Janis died in 1856 leaving Jules Janis and L. Bert Vallé to continue the business as equal partners.

Arrangement:

The collection has been arranged in its original order.

Scope and Content Note:

The Janis & Vallé Daybook contains chronological account entries, listing purchaser and items purchased for a general mercantile establishment in Ste. Genevieve, Missouri. The daybook has daily entries, except Sundays, from June 1856 to December 1856. After that date, there are sporadic entries, sometimes weekly, until April 1858.
