Historical Note:

Jasper County, Missouri was organized in 1841. Much of its early settlements and settlers were focused around the mining industry. In 1860, the population of Jasper County was just over 6,500 with 334 being enslaved individuals. During the war, the county supplied soldiers for both sides and saw much troop movement. Carthage was burned in 1863, and completely evacuated and destroyed by the end of the war.

Arrangement:

The collection has been arranged in its original order.

Scope and Content Note:

The collection contains a microfilm copy of a volume with the tax assessment list and property assessments for Jasper County, Missouri in 1861. The property assessments include records of acreage, slaves, and town lots. Property owners are listed in rough alphabetical order. In addition to real estate holdings, slaves are enumerated and assessed. Bonds and notes are listed, and there are assessments for lots in Carthage and other towns in Jasper County. John Hornback certified the list on July 1, 1861.
