Historical Note:

The 72nd and 74th regiments were raised in accordance with Missouri militia laws of 1862. The units were organized in December 1862 at Springfield, the headquarters of the 4th Military District of Missouri. They were commanded by Colonels Henry Sheppard and Marcus Boyd, respectively. Both regiments served during Marmaduke's raid into southwestern Missouri and were engaged at the Battle of Springfield on January 8, 1863.

Arrangement:

The collection has been arranged in its original order.
