Historical Note:

The United Evangelical Church was founded in 1926 by members of St. John's Lutheran Church in Cole Camp. The new church was organized so that the members "might have an English-speaking, and yet Lutheran church, open communion, and a more liberal acceptance of fraternal organizations." The first meetings were held in the Eickhoff Opera House, then in an empty store building in Cole Camp. The congregation moved into its own church in 1938. The church was still an active congregation in 2023.

Arrangement:

The collection has been arranged in chronological order.

Scope and Content Note:

This collection contains three photocopied records from the United Evangelical Lutheran Church in Cole Camp, Benton County, Missouri. The first is a copy of "The Song of Triumph," the Easter Cantata by Edward W. Norman, dated April 1, 1934. The second is the church's directory, titled, "United Evangelical Lutheran Church, Main and Locust," dated to 1972. The folder also contains a copy of the fiftieth anniversary program from September 5, 1976, "United Evangelical Church, 'The Little Stone Church with the Gospel,' Cole Camp, Missouri." This anniversary program also contains additional historical details and a roster of members.
