

Information Sheet

R Hartman's Hideaway (Kirbyville, Mo.).
828 Letter, 1965.
 One folder.

This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri. If you would like more information, please contact us at shsresearch@umsystem.edu.

This is a printed promotional letter for Hartman's Hideaway, a campground near Kirbyville in Taney County, Missouri.

Hartman's Hideaway was a campground near Bull Shoals Lake in Taney County, Missouri. This printed letter was mailed on 21 May 1965 to R. H. Newman of St. Louis, Missouri. The two-page letter describes the "picturesque setting" of the campground and the "hillbilly hospitality" that one could expect while camping there. On-site or nearby activities included fishing, hiking, caving, hunting, swimming, and boating. Rates were $1.50 per day (plus $0.25 for an electrical hook-up) or $10.00 per week.

r878

10 June 2002

Steven Charnas

Purchase

Index Cards

Camp sites, facilities, etc.—Missouri—Taney County.
Hartman's Hideaway (Kirbyville, Mo.).
Kirbyville (Mo.).
Taney County (Mo.).
Tourist trade—Missouri—Taney County.