These are program booklets for the Association of Young Republicans of Missouri's annual Lincoln Day Banquets, held on 12 February 1926 and 12 February 1935 at the Shrine Mosque in Springfield in Greene County, Missouri. Governor Sam A. Baker and Senator George H. Williams were featured speakers in 1926, while United States Representatives Hamilton E. Fish and Dewey J. Short headlined the event in 1935.

The Association of Young Republicans of Missouri was organized on 12 February 1900. Each year it held a formal banquet on or near Abraham Lincoln's birthday. In 1926 and 1935 the banquet was held at the Shrine Mosque in Springfield. In 1926 William L. Vandeventer of Kansas City served as toastmaster, with the Hon. E. E. E. McJimsey of Springfield, the Rev. Dewey Jackson Short of Galena, Mrs. Ardella Dockery Still of Kirksville, Governor Sam A. Baker of Jefferson City, Senator George H. Williams of Clayton, Lieutenant Governor Phil A. Bennett of Springfield, and the Hon. Arthur M. Hyde of Trenton on the program. In 1935 Judge Emory E. Smith of Monett served as toastmaster, with major addresses by Representatives Hamilton E. Fish of New York and Dewey J. Short of Galena, Missouri. George Lozier of Perryville and Mrs. Myrrl Remley of Orrick also spoke.

The booklets were 20 pages in 1926 and 24 pages in 1935. They served as programs for the events. Included in the booklets were "A Brief History" of the organization, lists of officers and members of committees, and the association's constitution.
