DESCRIPTION

This is a 20" x 29" poster that was created as a promotional piece for Eagle Hurst Ranch around 1942.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

The poster is a collage of images that were mounted to a piece of plywood and then shot as one large half-tone photograph. The poster includes an eagle logo, the title "Eagle Hurst Ranch, Huzzah, Mo" and fifteen halftones of various scenes at the Ranch. Among these half-tones are the entrance gate to the Ranch, the swimming pool, horseback riding, fly fishing, scenic views of the woods and the Huzzah River, swimming in the river, the dining hall and cabins.

HISTORY

Eagle Hurst Ranch was founded in the late 1930s. It is located in Crawford County, off of Highway 8 about 14 miles southeast of Steeleville, Missouri. It is known that the Ranch was a favorite get-away of St. Louis Cardinals players in the late 1940s and early 1950s.
