Historical Note:

Laclede County, Missouri was organized on February 24, 1849. Named for Pierre Laclede, the founder of St. Louis, Laclede County is located in central Missouri. Lebanon, Missouri serves as the county seat.

The centennial celebration for Laclede County was a week-long celebration coordinated by members of the Lebanon community. The festivities included live music, games, competitions, reenactments, the county fair, and a ball among other events.

Arrangement:

The collection has been arranged in one folder.

Scope and Content Note:

The collection consists of the official program and souvenir booklet created for the Laclede County Centennial celebrations organized by county citizens in August 1949. The booklet contains a schedule of events, photographs of event coordinators, and a short history of the county.
