Introduction

Approximately 2 cubic feet

The Scholarship Foundation of St. Louis contains meeting minutes, correspondence, bylaws, and photographs documenting the group's mission to assist St. Louis area students by providing them with interest-free loans to help further their education beyond high school.

Founded in 1920, this organization was initially established as a committee of the St. Louis Section of the National Council of Jewish Women. In 1929 the Foundation was incorporated as the St. Louis Jewish Scholarship Foundation, an autonomous organization, and in 1961 became The Scholarship Foundation of St. Louis. At that time, its scope was expanded to include all needy students of St. Louis and St. Louis County regardless of race or religion. The Board of Directors and general membership of the organization are inter-racial and nonsectarian.
