

S1075 BARNES MEDICAL NOTEBOOKS (1892-1911), 1902-1905 11 FOLDERS

This collection is available at [The State Historical Society of Missouri](http://The State Historical Society of Missouri). If you would like more information, please contact us at shsresearch@umsystem.edu

PROVENANCE

On January 3, 2012, Donna J. Acker of Edmond, Oklahoma donated the Barnes Medical Notebooks to the State Historical Society of Missouri.

HISTORY

The Barnes Medical College operated in St. Louis, Missouri from 1892 to 1911 and provided educational services to students who wished to pursue medical careers. In 1911, the Barnes Medical College merged with the American Medical College and opened as the National University of Arts and Sciences in 1912. As a combined educational organization, the Barnes Medical College operated within this context until the National University of Arts and Sciences closed in 1918.

SCOPE AND CONTENT

The records contain notebooks and other documents that describe the classroom experiences of students who attended the Barnes Medical College from 1902 to 1905.

BOX 1

1. Small medical notebooks
2. The American Pocket Medical Dictionary; Barnes' Medical College, College Rules
3. Medical notes, 1902
4. M. F. Ballinger Physiology notes, February 28, 1903
5. M. Salinger (?) Medical notes, 1903
6. Medical notes, 1903
7. Diseases of Children class notes, 1903-1904
8. Medical notes, 1903-1904
9. Medical notes, 1904-1905
10. Orthopedic Surgery notes, 1904-1905
11. Principles of Medicine class notes, 1904-1905