Introduction

Approximately .25 cubic foot

The papers of Sandra Jo Pfefferkorn contain evaluations, reports, and writings concerning Central High School and the development of its curriculum, student writing abilities, and student and faculty morale at Central High School. Other items of interest include a 1967-1968 annual report published by the Missouri Commission on Human Rights. The papers date from 1967 to 1981.

Sandra Jo Pfefferkorn (nee. Carter) was born on January 14, 1940, to Albert Archibald Carter and Alice Claire Lowell in St. Louis, Missouri. Pfefferkorn earned her Bachelor of Science degree in Secondary Education from Southeast Missouri State College in 1961, and her masters on Education degree from the University of Missouri, Columbia, in 1966. She married Michael Gene Pfefferkorn on June 15, 1963, and spent her career teaching English courses at Central High School (1961-1984) and Southwest High School. During her career as a teacher, Pfefferkorn served as the head of the Central High School's English Department, from 1973 to 1984.
