DRESSEL FAMILY PAPERS

This collection is available at The State Historical Society of Missouri Research Center-St. Louis. If you would like more information, please contact us at stlouis@shsmo.org.

Introduction

Approximately .25 cubic foot

The Dressel Family Papers contains newspaper clippings, newsletters, photographs, and essays pertaining to John M. Dressel (1886-1988), who was one of the founders of the Lindbergh School District and served on the Board of Directors of the Gravois Bank of St. Louis County, Missouri. Items of interest include a history of Sappington, Missouri, written by the Junior High History Club of Sappington School in 1936. The materials in this collection date from 1937 to 2001.

Donor Information

The papers were donated to the State Historical Society of Missouri by John Kenneth Dressel on December 4, 2018 (Accession No. SA4377).

Copyright and Restrictions

The Donor has given and assigned to the University all rights of copyright, which the Donor has in the Materials and in such of the Donor's works as may be found among any collections of Materials received by the University from others.
