Biographical Note:

John Brightwell was born December 10, 1861 in Millville, Woodford County Kentucky. He was the son of Thomas Brightwell and Mary Ann Tyre. He moved to Missouri in 1876 at the age of 19 and settled in Protem, Taney County, Missouri. He would live in the same place for seventy years, constructing every building with his own hands. He married Fannie Effie Clark in March of 1894 and together they had ten children, seven boys and three girls. John Brightwell died September 16, 1950 and is buried in Protem Cemetery. John's son Hillary moved to Springfield where he was proprietor of Brightwell's filling station and the Rest Haven Court motor court on Route 66. Rest Haven Court, looking much the same, remains an icon of Route 66.

Arrangement:

The collection has been arranged into eleven folders including images, homestead claims, correspondence, genealogy, family stories and business ledgers.

Scope and Content Note:

The collection consists of the personal papers and business ledgers belonging to the Brightwell family. It documents their businesses in Southwest, Missouri including the Rest Haven Inn an icon of Route 66 which is still in operation. Also included are family histories and stories as compiled by Hillary Brightwell.
